“ I received my quarterly Marine Corps Retiree magazine today and saddened to see Jack's name listed there. There truly are no words to express how much his passing grieves me not only as a fellow Marine, but as a good friend with whom many good as well as bad times were shared. I will always remember his infectious laugh and humour and how you two complemented each other so well.

“ Donna,
I was so saddened to hear of Jacks passing. Michael called me while I was driving to Walter Reed ICU to visit Carol. I have been thinking for several weeks how fragile life is and how much our loved ones fill our lives with joy, love, humor and some times aggravation. I think of Jack often when I go riding. I think of you at the Harley shop and the good times we had. God bless you and yours, jack will be missed.

“ Dear Donna and family.

I am so sorry to hear of Jack’s passing. I worked with Jack at HQMC when he was the Procurement Chief of the Marine Corps. He was a close friend and an incredible leader. Everyone respected and loved him. He was always the “Go To” guy when things got really rough.

My favorite memories of Jack were when we were on travel. As you know the Marines, we would hit a bar, have a few and the stories would just roll. Just like fish stories, the stories got bigger as the night wore on. His smile and laugh always stood out and he so enjoyed hearing all the funny moments from his and others careers. We had so many laughs and such good memories!

*Please know that my and my families thoughts and prayers are with you and yours. Jack will always have a special place in my heart!
Take good care, Donna.*

“ I was so fortunate to work for Jack for the last 8 years of my career. Anyone who worked for or with Jack came to love and respect him as the man who knew how to manage people in a kind and generous way. He was by far the best boss I ever had and I am so very saddened about his sudden death. My heartfelt prayers are for Donna and all the family he so loved. May our loving Lord Jesus give you strength and comfort in this time and the peace only He can give. Henry also thinks the world of Jack and joins me in these prayers. Peggy Rosser

“ Donna, Nancy and I were truly sorry to hear about Jack's passing. He and I worked together and were good friends for many years. He is the reason my career was as successful as it was. We will miss his smile, his jokes, his "black and tans." But, we always will have the memories of our times together. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the kids.
