“ We shall forever cherish all of our memories of Aunt Jamalees visits to Tennessee . Always such a bright smile and full of joy . I can always remember how happy my Dad Jim Taylor and my precious Stepmom Kay would get at any mention of her visits along with Uncle Roy and then after his passing Max. My kids would grow with excitement as they would learn she was coming. Her great faith was abounding! Always speaking of her precious family and her love for them .

“ While it is indeed a sad day we can only remember the very beautiful memories of Aunt Jamalee. She was a rock for the family through all the years as the youngest of 10. She was my first baby sitter when she was only 11. She was almost like a sister that I never had. She was the one who called me from Florida whenever my Dad (her brother) was sick and when he passed away. She always had a bright smile and positive outlook. We will miss her very much as she completes her journey to reunite with Roy, Dick and Bill.

As the oldest of the descendants of W.O. I hope to live up to Aunt Jamalee's legacy.
