“ Don pretty much grew up at his Grandma and Grandpa Brizendine's. His uncles, Bobby, Jack, and Max weren't a lot older than Don. So they were more like big brothers than uncles. He has told me so many stories about things he enjoyed doing with Bob, and the many things he learned from him: the importance of being honest, the importance of hard work, the importance of taking care of those you love.....the importance of fun. Bob personified all those attributes. What a good man!

“ I will never forget what a wonderful man he truly was. He loved all of you so much and was so proud of each and every one of you! I'm glad that I got to see him one last time the other night and sorry that I wasn't there for you all when he passed. He is no longer suffering and has been reunited with your mom who he truly was devoted to! May your memories and love for him help ease the pain of your loss. With all those memories he will always be with you. Love and prayers, Julie

I have a great deal of respect for Bob. For 13 years I served as his pastor and he was consistent and supportive and always came to church with a smile and candy for the kids. He was on my mind a few days ago. I am sure the Lord must have prompted me to pray for him.
