

James Eugene Daughhete

August 21, 1970 - April 18, 2026

James Eugene Daughhete "Jamey, Hymie", 55, a lifelong resident of Anderson, Indiana, passed away on April 18, 2026. Born on August 21, 1970, in Anderson to Judith and the late Eldon Daughhete Sr., James lived a full life centered around his hometown. He graduated from Anderson High School in 1988, where he was a dedicated member of the Anderson Marching Indians and a member of the Drum Line. Those years spent with the band remained a proud part of his story.

For many years, James provided dedicated service as a material handler for Dormakaba in Indianapolis. His colleagues knew him as a hard worker and a reliable presence.

James's greatest legacy remains his family. He is survived by his son, Cameron Daughhete; mother, Judith Daughhete; siblings, Tracey Daughhete, Eric Daughhete, and family; and Eldon "Butch" Daughhete, Jr., and his family.

James was preceded in death by his father, Eldon "Robbie" Daughhete Sr.

He will be remembered for his steady nature, his dedication to his family, and the beat of the drums that echoed through his high school years.

Tribute Wall

BW

“ Hymie Royal, the baddest drummer I ever had the pleasure to jam with. Rest easy. Jammin

Benjamin S Wash - May 04 at 03:45 PM

TL

“ Jamey will be missed. I will always have the great memories of playing drums in band with him since 7th grade. Always loved his family. Prayers for his family. We will never forget you Jamey!

Todd Layton - April 24 at 06:50 PM

“ My heart goes out to his wonderful family. I pray that God comforts each one of you at this difficult time. Jamey, may you rest in peace ❤️

Heidi Snyder - April 23 at 05:53 PM

CL

“ Jamey was a wonderful friend to both Randy and me. He will be greatly missed.

Carla Lawson - April 23 at 02:30 PM