“ Linda, I'm so sorry to hear of Jim's passing. Shirley's cousin who graduated from Greenfield recently moved back from Alaska and I ask his girlfriend to see if anyone knew your address and he had bumped into Jim's brother who told her. We laugh often about our Cedar Rapids days.

“ Although I've known Jim Davis for less than a year, his guidance and influence have been invaluable. I knew him as a man with an abiding faith in God; and a great love for family and friends. He was a consummate professional, and a true patriot. I will miss him.
