“ I'll always remember how Uncle Jim could shake your hand, slap you on the shoulder, and give you some wise-ass remark like, "Just don't ever go to prison. You wouldn't make it there."....ALL with the BIGGEST, WARMEST GRIN on his face. I'm gonna miss that, but just for now. Save me a seat in Heaven, Uncle. Peace & Love, Your Nephew Mark ~

“ Jim will be sadly missed as an employee of IDOC, a friend and a Masonic Brother. He was a good man and I spent many pleasant times discussing common interests, trains, railroads, etc; both as an employee and as a friend. Wishing him a pleasant journey to that eternal rest and peace which he so richly deserves. My wife Sandi echo's these thoughts.
