“ Can't count the memories of the great times we shared as young boys. We shared so much besides our age, because it was just you and me buddy with Nana Dyer, on all of the trips she took you and me. I love you friend, and we will spend an eternity together catching up. Please meet me at the Gate. I'll be looking for you. Cousin John

“ To the Dyer Family, You are all in our prayers and thoughts at the passing of Jim. His battle is over, no more pain and suffering. I visited him when he was at Harbour Manor and gave him Holy Communion. We are friends with his sister, Kathy and mom, Betty Dyer. May God comfort and surround you with His unconditional love, peace, hope and joy. God bless you all. Peace in the Lord, Ron and Veronica Anderson, Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, Noblesville, IN
