“ Jim is one of the best people I have ever met in my life. I worked with him at Rowland Title, SDFB, and Countryside. He always had good advice and had my best interest in mind. I wish I had followed some of it. The things I did, worked out. I started working for Jim when I was 19 years old. Great person. Wise, caring and kind. He will be missed. - Denise Cooley

“ Jim and I met in 1956 when we started the seventh grade at Madison Heights. Through our school years, we participated in scouts, sports band and of course social activities. After graduating in 1962, we went to work at at Delco Remy, Jim for the summer and then off to VMI. During this time we only saw each other during the Christmas holidays. After that Jim would appear for an hour or 2 before dinner on Sundays and sometimes during the week, my mom and dad enjoyed having Jim anytime and Jim enjoy dad's roast, Lasagna, Turkey and everything else he made and of course, mom's dessert. Jim went on to law school and I went into the service. And we still continued to stay in touch. Jim continued to have contact and association with the Campbell family. When Jim started working in his chosen field, he would stop in and see how I was progressing in school and always wanting to help me with my papers and studies. Jim also wanted to see how I was doing, Jim helped me get my degree and yes, he got to eat. As time moved on, we maintained our contact abd as you read this, you can see the pattern forming . Jim, liked food and conversation, breakfast became a Saturday event for us. Time moved on but Sunday's became a regular happening. Jim would call and stop in after his visit to the gun club. We would had coffee, read the papers, then it was nap time for Jim. My wife happened to be an excellent cook and for Jim that meant he had dinner and dessert on those Sundays. This is just a SnapShot of our friendship of almost 70 years. We both enjoyed our time together and the events we shared over the years you truly will be missed.
