

James R. Graham

January 27, 1942 - December 14, 2005

Anderson - James R. Graham, 63, Anderson, died December 14, 2005 at his residence after a heart attack. He was born January 27, 1942 in Alexandria, Indiana, and resided in Anderson, Indiana. He worked at the US Post Office in Santa Ana, California for 29 years until retiring in 1997. He decided to move back to Anderson after retirement and went to work at the Anderson License Branch for several years until retiring "for real." He graduated Anderson High School at 16, after skipping ahead a year in elementary school. He graduated from Santa Ana Junior College in 1972 and received a BA in History from Lacrosse University in 2003. He joined the US Marine Corp at 17 and served his country in the USMC for 10 years. He served in the Vietnam War. He is survived by his daughter: Christine Graham of Anderson. He was preceded in death by his wife of 36 years, Tsune Yoko Fujiwara Graham; parents, Fleta Brookshire Gaw and Orville Graham; brother, Bob Graham; sister, Ruby Kelich and Stepfather, Carlie Gaw. Cremation will take place. www.LooseFuneralHomes.com

Tribute Wall

PW

“ Dear Chris, Your Dad was one of the nicest kindest people I ever worked with or knew. What a shock for this to happen at only 63. I know he loved you and your Mom very much. He talked of you both so often and always with love and admiration. You have our very deepest and heartfelt sympathy. God Bless You Love Lorraine & Phil

Phil&Lorraine Weyermiller - December 20, 2005 at 12:00 AM

LK

“ I will miss my Hoosier Daddy . . . my second father, but he will always be in my heart. Someone so special is never forgotten. Semper fi, sir . . . semper fi.

Linda Kay - December 18, 2005 at 12:00 AM