“ I worked with Jim for just the last two years at HBM, the last time I saw him, he was cleaning up from the breakfast he had cooked for everyone. He was looking forward to Maci's birth and always talked about his family and his dogs. So sorry for your loss.

“ Our school family, and my family will miss him very much. When he found out we missed seeing HS football, of course he invited us to come see Tyler play. Growing up near 3 Marine Corp bases, we had lots to chat about.

“ Jim's big heart is unmatched by many. I learned shortly after getting to know him he would do most anything for the kids in town. Rarely was he seen around school activities without several students wanting to talk with him. I will miss him at every PHMS football game. Terri and Tyler, even though I am out of town my prayers are with your family.

“ Here was a guy who was always the same, and that was a good thing. Wherever you saw Jim he was in good humor, with a quick wit, and was glad to see you. His cookies were legendary. Mom mother referred to Jim/Terri as the "cookie couple" One year they baked, boxed and shipped to Ft Wayne one Christmas. The softball girls adored him too. Regardless of weather conditions, often nasty, Hancocks were always there rooting for 'Rabians. Truth be known, two names should be engraved on those bleachers, one for Jim, and one for Deb Riley. Miss 'em both.

“ We were so sorry to hear of Jim’s passing. Jim was a very caring and sincere man who loved doing things for everyone. I will truly miss our early morning exchanges that would go something like this: “Morning Kimmie. How’s Miss Mal? Hear anything from Jaylynnne or Kyle? What’s James doing?” It was the same exact routine every day that I could count on. I will miss him coming in my office to ask me questions and just talk, and the fun bantering we used to do every day. I remember having people in my office that were not accustomed to this kind of fun, and would look horrified as Jim and I would trade quips about each other and Jim would always end the conversation by saying, “oh we do this all the time”, she dishes it right back at me.” While there is nothing we can say that will ease your loss, I hope you find comfort in the memories you have and the stories others will tell you. Sincerely Kim and Tom Kuersteiner, Jaylynnne, James, Mallory and Kyle
