“ Kris and Family, Our sympathy to you on the loss of Jim. We may have miles of distance between us but you have been very near to us in our thoughts and prayers. Our memories of Jim include those volleyball games and the Saturday morning breakfasts when he cooked at the Hershey Family Reunion. You will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers in the days and weeks ahead. Love, Jo, Tom, Tara and Ryan

“ Dear Kris amd Family: You have our deepest sympathy in the passing of Jim. We really can't find the words to tell you how sorry we are. Wish we could have gotten to the Funeral home for visitation-things just didn't work out. We apologize for not getting a Congratulations card sent to you on the birth of Justin. We are happy for you in that respect. May God bless you and keep you in His care. Love, Ron & Karron
