

James Allen Hinshaw

September 24, 1948 - March 11, 2023

James Allen Hinshaw, 74, passed away on March 11, 2023. He was born on September 24, 1948, to Keith and Sarah Elizabeth Hinshaw.

James graduated from Lapel High School, class of 1967. He served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War and retired from Guide Lamp.

In his younger years, he enjoyed yoga, 4-H, and participating in horse shows, especially the Parelli way of teaching where he achieved a Level 1 certificate.

James is survived by his sisters, Mary (Richard) Falkenberry, Sara (Thomas) Gray, Jean (Greg) Baty; and sister-in-law, Thelma Hinshaw. Also surviving are his nieces and nephews, Tricia (Darrell) Hammer, Keith (Amy) Hinshaw, Nicole (Joe) Harrell, Treva (Aaron) Hickman, Connie (Jeremy) Rickert, Bill (Becky) Thatcher, Rhonda Hurt, Matthew (Maria) Falkenberry, Erin (Tucker) Stremming, Kati (James) Austgen, Josh Baty, and Courtney Baty; and several great-nieces and nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and brother, Phillip Hinshaw.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, March 18, 2023, 3:00 pm – 5:00 pm, at Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory.

Memorial service will follow visitation at 5:00 pm.

We extend a special thanks to the Sugar Fork caregivers, Amanda with hospice, and Lisa and Gene with the VA for your care and support.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Wounded Warriors Project.

I am so very sorry to hear this news. James was a sweet classmate. Always had a smile on his face, but very shy as well. As I look at the pictures posted here, I'm sad that we all lost track of each other, even though we all lived within a short distance. I never knew all he had done and accomplished after our school years. Rest easy James and I hope to see you again some day.
