“ Hummer was a good friend to our father, Tom Lineberry. A visit to the legion or 40/8 always meant a visit with Hummer. He was always good for a tease and had a quarter to spare for us kids. Even though several years would pass between my visits with Dad to the clubs, Hummer was always there and never changed. Afro, big smiles, harmless flirts and his bling. He will be missed.

“ Jim, as brothers in the Forty and Eight I have always considered you my friend. I will be out of town this weekend but I had to say that the memories we have shared will be with me until our Lord takes me from this Earth to be with you. Rest in Peace.
