“ Jimmy, The day you passed away didn't seem real. It's really starting to hit me that you're gone. I will never see your smile, feel your hugs and love anymore. Your passing has left a gaping hole here for all of us. You were the strongest, toughest person I knew and you were always the constant male figure in mine and Jennifer's life. Little Eyla wants to FaceTime you in Heaven and I wish I could too even tho you hated FaceTime. I have so many memories growing up with you as my big brother, memories that I will cherish the rest of my life but I'd rather have you here instead. I can't help but wonder what it was like for you to see Gods face. I was so proud of you the way you handled and faced the fact that you had cancer. I just knew you were gonna win that fight but the last few days at the hospital was more than you could take and I would have gladly taken your place so you didn't have to endure the pain or feel any fear. My heart has a huge empty hole now and I'm sure that Mom's, Jennifer's, Dee, Christin's and Trevor's hearts are no longer whole either. I will miss you forever until we see each other again. I love you Jimmy.

“ Jim coached my daughter, Jordan Haymaker, in softball. He was one of my favorite coaches that she had. He was such a nice guy. I'm so sorry to see he has passed. My condolences to his family.

Thank you Chris Haymaker Brooks. I'm Jim's sister Jamie. He was a great guy and even greater brother. I noticed your name Haymaker, and that your daughters name is Jordan. I worked at Hollon's Pharmacy for 20yrs with Sandy Butler who used to be a Haymaker and had a grand daughter named Jordan Haymaker. Any relation?

“ Jim, Jamie & Jennifer were a big part of my life before they were even born.

I still remember the phone call that he was born what a happy moment, but we had to wait to see him because he was born in Louisiana. Aunt Billie & Uncle Don and I were so excited.

They have always called me Aunt Barb. They were part of my life and still are.

I love them all dearly.

I use to stop in and see him at the shop, just to say Hi and get a kiss and hug I loved those hugs.

Jimmy will be missed by his friends and family.

“ We coached youth baseball and football together for many years. Jim also took care of all the upholstery work for the equipment at our fitness center. A great craftsman and a very thorough and intense coach! I will certainly miss him.

“ I remember when we first met Jim... He was driving around to all the homes of his teammates that year and as he pulled up to our home Zachary was out in the yard playing ball... Jim was so excited about Zach's love for the game and just took Zach under his wing.. He was a great guy and father and coach
