“ To family and friends: I first met Jim at Roosevelt where we went to school. Later, I worked with him at the post office. As a youth he had a fun spirit and as an adult I appreciated his soft spoken philosophical views. Jim will be missed in many hearts.

“ Emily/Jesse...I am so sorry for your loss, your Dad was such an awesome man! I looked up to him like a father figure when I was younger, I always admired the closeness of his and Emily's relationship. I know he will never be forgotten. Let me know if you need anything!!

“ To Lois, Mike and Jeff, I always in a way looked upon Jim as a big brother to me during the days of my childhood in Harmeson Heights. I got to know Jim quite well in the years afterwards and always enjoyed his smirky smile with those twinkling eyes. I will miss him. Rick
