“ Dear Sally, Richard & family,
Our prayers, hugs & sympathy from your HSUMC Thursday lunch home. We'll feel forever fortunate & blessed to have been graced by Jimmy's delightful spirit & talent. As a musician, pianist & singer myself, I was initially amazed & continually uplifted that all Jimmy had before him at a piano were a title & key to play in! All his magic was in his genius of a memory & we were in the presence of a rare soul. Whether pulling out his train songs (& Richard's hat!) or getting us to bark along like trained doggies in a window, Jimmy was a one-of-a-kind, truly irreplaceable entertainer who will definitely be in demand on his next musical stage in life. Why even heaven's harpists may be “arf, arf!” ing! Let the season give you peace & lighten your loss.
In loving memory,
Sandra Seiwert

“ To Judy and the entire Priest family, our deepest sympathies to each of you. Heaven has a new angel. The joy and love that he had for his family and for singing were very extraordinary! To make people smile and laugh was very important to him and he sure did this with 110% each and every day! R I P Mr. Jim
