“ To all of Jim's family, We will remember Jim for his great singing at our get togethers at Bethany Point, especially "Old Rugged Cross" and "Amazing Grace". He did have a good strong tenor voice, and it won't be the same without him . Our sympathy to all his family. Love and prayers, Sue and Earl Wagner

“ Iam sorry to hear of Jims passing. I had the pleasure of being one of his caregivers and he was one of my customers when i worked at furrows . We often teased because of our last names being so close. He was a very strong willed man that made every new comer was greeted and shown their way in their new home at bethany pointe. my prayers are with you all. Kim Rohrbacher
