“ Dear Uncle James, Has I look back upon the many days, in my childhood, I can see you, and my dear sweet Aunt Edna, always being there, for me, in so many ways. I will never forget all the good times, of staying in your home, to be able to be close to, my sweet cousins Jimmy, who feels like my brother. and my dear little Sis triena. how I would love it, when I would hear you say, on a hot summer day. Hey! is there anyone around here, that would like to go to Fall Creek? and jump it? to get cooled off? oh how I loved you for that. and Thanks uncle James, for all the ice cream cones. that you bought me. I will always love you so very much. I know someday soon, we will all be together once more. give Aunt Edna, a big kiss for me. Rest Now Dear One, in Gods Peace always. your second son, Jr Ragle.
