“ Jim and I became friends at the VA Hospital in Marion, Indiana. Our friendship endured for about 15 to 20 years. We took him to church, Jim ate with us, I took care of some business items for Jim and sometimes we visited various places, including the Assisted Living Center in Marion, where Jim lived. Jim phone me most every evening and that meant a lot to him and to me. We met Jim's daughter a few times too. He was a good friend and a good Christian man. We all miss him. God Bless you Jim and we will see you with the saints in Heaven.
