“ Jane Ann was my first boss at Anderson Banking company, when Commercial Bank was sold. I will always remember how she made me feel like I was supposed to be in my position, even though I had to learn 90 percent of my job over. Unwavering patience and kindness with whatever came next, she was there to help. We became great friends.
Even though I did not see her often after her retirement, she always stopped to catch up on family and life. She truly was a one of a kind. A beautiful lady.
