

Jane M. King

April 13, 1923 - August 26, 2006

Anderson - Jane M. Potter King, 83, Anderson, went to be with the Lord August 26, 2006 at Community Northview Care Center, Anderson following an extended illness. She was born April 13, 1923 in Cleveland, Ohio, and spent most of her life in the metropolitan Cleveland area before moving to Anderson, Indiana. Jane was a homemaker. She was a member of Victory Baptist Church in Anderson, Indiana where her son, Kenneth King serves as pastor. Jane was extremely involved in church all of her adult life. She began the first Pioneer Girls Club and the first deaf ministry in her church. She was a Sunday school teacher and junior church leader for many years and later served in the AWANA program. The family would like to thank Judy Lash of St. John's Hospice and the staffs of Community Northview Care Center and Monticello House for the loving and special care that they provided for Jane. She is survived by her five children, Barbara King of North Olmstead, Ohio; Gerald & wife Virginia King of Pensacola, Florida; Rev. Kenneth & wife Gloria King of Anderson, Indiana; Donna & husband James Gilles of Cleveland, Ohio and Kathie & husband Alan Morrissey of Temperance, Michigan. One Brother, Robert Potter of Cleveland, Ohio. Fifteen Grandchildren and Twenty Great Grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, Stanley & Jane Wilson Potter and sisters, Charlotte and Lois. Services will be Saturday, September 2, 2006 at 1:00 PM, at Cleveland Baptist Church; 4431 Tideman Road; Cleveland, Ohio, with Pastor Kenneth King officiating. Visitation will be from 11-1:00 PM on Saturday, September 2, 2006 at the church.

Arrangements in Ohio are being handled by Mallchok Funeral Home; 5660 Ridge Road; Cleveland. Memorial contributions may be made to the Victory Baptist Church Missions Program for deaf ministries. www.LooseFuneralHomes.com
