“ When I was little, Aunt Jane and my cousins Kathy, Patsy, and Lindy lived next door. Aunt Jane's was always a warm and fun place to go. I remember the yarn octopus dolls she made, and her chocolate chip cookies were the best in the world. Even at a young age I knew it was special to have such a wonderful aunt right next door!

“ Aunt Jane's house was always a safe haven for us growing up. My sisters and I always loved it next door with home made treats and lots of love from Aunt Jane. As kids we played in your yard as if it was our own and always felt that you were as concerned for our well being as our own parents. We were family and I will always appreciate the example you set as a Mother, an Aunt, and as a strong woman, at a time it couldn't have been easy to be in any of those roles. Kathy, Lindy and Patsy :I am sorry for your loss and hope that your memories of the times you have had together all of these years will comfort you. You were blessed with a loving, beautiful mother. I hope you find comfort in the bond with each other as my sisters and I did after the passing of our mother. You are all in my prayers. Bless you all. Love, Your cousin, Tina Bishop

“ I love you, Aunt Jane. You were always so kind to us. My mother was so glad that you two kept in touch while she was still living. I have so many fond memories of living next door to you, being in your house on Franklin Steet in Buena Park, CA playing in the back yard or garage with Lindy and Patsy, listening to good music on your stereo in the house while smelling the aroma of freshly baked goodies. I have held those memories close to my heart all these years. Love, Niece Diana and husband Ed

“ Aunt Jane was one of our favorite aunts. She always made us feel welcomed and made sure something good to eat was waiting for us. Aunt Jane raised our cousins with every inch of fortitude, generosity, and "loving from the heart" that most people would wish they had. It was fun spending our childhood living next door to Aunt Jane and Lindy, Patsy, Kathy. We loved Aunt Jane and wish her family the strength to continue as she would have wished. Love, The Bishop cousins...DeVona, Diana, Tina and Cindy
