“ Janet was my sorority sister. I always smile when I think of her. She was always being funny and telling jokes. She was so sweet to me and really made me feel good about being in sorority. She took a stand for doing what was right for other people. She truly loved and lived sorority. She's an unforgettable gal and I will miss her deeply. My condolences go out to her children and family. She is in God's hands now.
