“ Dear Family, Our sympathy for your loss, and you will be in our Prayers. Thank you for allowing me the time and privilege to spend time with you and Janice. As a Chaplain with Community and a Pastor, we grieve, yet rejoice in the Hope Of Jesus Christ that we can hold on to 'That Hope' and see Her again some day. Though Life is often Bitter the end results are Sweet as we go to a Loving God who Loves us through Jesus and turns our sorrow into joy. May you continually find Peace and Joy as you reflect how precious Janice was to all . Loving you because God loves Us,
