

Janice L. Schlabach

March 1, 1942 - March 1, 2015

Janice L. Schlabach, 73, of Anderson, went to be with her Lord on March 1, 2015 at St. Vincent Anderson Regional Hospital. She was born on March 1, 1942 in Anderson where she resided all of her life. Jan received the best birthday gift by waking up in Heaven.

She was a retired caretaker for many health services, but most importantly she took care of her mother and father all of their lives. She also lovingly took care of dozens of nieces and nephews.

Jan was a member of Grace Baptist Keenagers, attended Whetstone Christian Church, enjoyed fishing, and traveling the United States and Mexico. Most recently she has enjoyed gift giving to all she knew.

Jan is survived by her loving brothers, Duane Schlabach of Logansport, David (Vicki) Schlabach of Anderson, and Jon Schlabach of Anderson; sisters, Lila (Max) Farlow of Pensacola, FL, and Betty Haston of Greensburg. Also surviving are dozens of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Amos and Edna Schlabach; siblings, Richard (Dick) Schlabach, Charlotte Jones, and Paul (Terry) Schlabach; and her loving dog and companion, Toto.

Visitation will be held Thursday, March 5, 2015, 10:30 am - 11:30 am at Robert D. Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory, 200 West 53rd St. Anderson, Indiana.

Services will follow visitation at the funeral home with Frank Ponce' officiating.

Burial will take place in the East Maplewood.

“AJ," my aunt Jan, was such a wonderful, important influence in my childhood and youth. Always gracious, loving, ready to smile and laugh with us. She "donated" many, many hours of babysitting to my mom, watching (especially) my brothers and me. I heard the news of AJ's passing while visiting my little brother Rick in Florida. We have had a poignant, moving time here, sharing memories of AJ, thinking about the ways in which her constant kindness and grace provided much-needed refuge during our formative years. We will love her forever, and look forward to seeing her again someday. --

“ Jan was a sweet lady and will be missed. She enjoyed Keenagers at GBC and would wear special hats and clothes for special days and brought pretty decorations for her table and just made the day more festive for all of us. She loved her special friend Francis Closser..they have been close friends for years. Jan loved her family very much and requested prayer for them often. Much sympathy to Jan's beloved family members. And though we will miss her, we know she's with her Precious Savior in her everlasting home and knows peace and joy beyond measure.
