“ My long friendship with jay from the time i was 15. Jay or Rusty as his grandma would often call him. Later jay took like a 30 yesr vacation. I fugured i would never get to reunite with my friend. But my cousin Troy became jays pastor. Jay and i had several talks while he was on His extended stay. He had found Jesus praise God. For at least letting me see my old friend a few times before he called him home. Rest in peace big man the Rev. Kenny Stroud Anderson Indiana

“ We are greatly saddened by the loss of my dear cousin, Jay Paul (Rusty) Crouse. Being only nine days younger than me, Rusty was like the brother I never had while we were growing up together. I have so many fond memories of the things we used to get up to while I was over at our Grandma's house. The things we got up to was usually harmless fun, but occasionally we'd get into some real mischief like how all young boys sometimes do! I'll always treasure those happy days we spent together. Thank you for being such a wonderful cousin and friend, Rusty, and someday I know we'll meet again.
