“Hi, I just wanted to let you and your family know how much I've been thinking about you and your family. To see another little baby going to be with the Lord hurts very much because I lost my 4 and 1/2 month old baby girl Josalynn April 7, 2005. She got sick and the doctor kept on telling me she was fine, but I knew as a mother that in heart that she was not alright. I stayed up while everyone else would sleep because I was too afraid she wasn't going to be able to breathe right. Then the night of her passing away I fell asleep talking to her at 2am and at 4am I woke up and she wasn't breathing. I fought so hard to keep her alive and I felt I had failed because I fell asleep. I know there is nothing anyone can say to make it better and nobody knows how it feels until they have lost one of their own. I know when I had lost my daughter I wanted to know after while is the pain going to get any easier or anything I could possibly want to know. My daughter and I were so close wherever I went she went, such as house chores, just wherever I walked or drove except for work and everyone told me I held her too much and now I don't feel like I held her enough. If you ever want to talk to someone who's been through it send something through my daughter's guest book Josalynn cross. You had a beautiful boy and he'll always live in your heart. He's in a safer place and not ever going to be in pain or be hurt. I had someone send me a card that said look in the sky at night and the brightest, flashing star is Jay saying hi. My thoughts and prayers will be with you.

“ No parent should ever have to outlive their children. Tragedy strikes without rhyme or reason, so I pray that it doesn't cloud the happiness Jay brought into your lives. He was a beautiful child and it was obvious that the love he brought into this world would forever be a gift to his parents.

“ YOU WERE SO PURE, SO INNOCENT, SO PERFECT. I DON'T UNDERSTAND DEATH AND I KNOW WE ARE NOT SUPPOSE TO QUESTION ALMIGHTY GOD'S CHOICES BUT IN SOME CASES THERE IS NOTHING LEFT TO SAY BUT WHY. JAY LEFT AN IMPRESSION ON OUR HEART FOREVER. NOT MANY PEOPLE IN LIFE CAN DO THAT TO A PERSON IN A SHORT AMOUNT OF TIME. WE WERE BLESSED TO MEET AN ANGEL LIKE YOU! I KNOW IT IS HARD TO HEAR PEOPLE SAY HE IS IN A BETTER PLACE NOW, HOW SON/BROTHER CAN BE HAVE BETTER PLACE THAN MOM'S ARM OR PAPPY'S LAP OR SISTER'S ARM. YOU ARE MISSED HERE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

“ My grandson was the most handsome little boy and won the hearts of all the people around him. All you had to do was say hello Jay and he had this beautiful smile for you that would just melt your heart and you fell in love with him so very deeply. I am going to miss him so very much and my house will never be the same. I have a room that is set up for him and it will always be there in his memory. He brought meaning to my life and he was going to be My grandson that I was going to be a big part of his life and little did I know that it was going to be so short. I do not understand why God had to take him away from his parents and his grandparents. Jay my grandson, grandma misses you so very much and I wish you were here so I could sing to you. I love you Jay and I always will.

“ My little Jay was the perfect baby. He was happy, healthy and very loved. He only cried when he was hungry, He hardly cry even when he dirtied his diaper. I prayed very hard for him. Finally I was pregnant. Jay brought so much love, happiness and meaning to our life. Now by his passing we have so much grief and sorrow.

“ Dear Almighty God We were all very happy with little angle that you sent in our world on Dec 19, 2005. We saw Jay\'s picture in the news paper but we don\'t want his picture under OBITURIES because he is too young to be there. One thing is sure that he won the battle of life and with our heart as well. God, we love him very much and please take care of him. Hello to Jay
