“ Teaching us about taking care of flowers, making homemade Chex mix at the house in St. Pete, sharing stories about family members all over the country, swimming in the pool and dipping our toes in the canal off of the dock; the memories I have of Nan are numerous and cherished. Nan was a caring woman with a great laugh and a wonderful smile. She had a fantastic sense of humor and she is loved, missed, and well remembered. I love you, Nan.

“ Rest in peace grandma Nan. Heaven truly gained an angel:) She was such a beautiful person inside and out. She was so good to her family and I will always remember her and carry her in my heart. My love and prayers to everyone and may you find comfort knowing she is looking down and smiling from above.

“ One of my favorite memories of my Nan, Jeanette True, was when we all went out on the pontoon boat on the Weeki Wachee river and watched the otters swim alongside the boat and fed Oreos to the raccoons. It's one of the many memories I have of Nan while she and my Grandpa, Jack True, lived in Florida. I miss you, Nan.
