

Jeanine F. Douglas

June 23, 1938 - October 16, 2020

Jeanine Faye Douglas blessed her family and friends with 82 years of advice, kind words, and companionship. She passed away from COVID-19 on Oct. 16, 2020, at Community Hospital Anderson. She was born on June 23, 1938, into a family of sisters, who she remained close with - particularly through lively games of dominoes, cards, and aggravation.

Jeanine was preceded in death by her parents Maxine Cole and Armand Lewis, her husband, Victor Douglas, and her sister, Jackie Wallace.

She is survived by her children, Lorie (Jeff) Kline and Matthew (Wendy) Douglas, her granddaughter, Madalyn Kline, her two sisters, Julie Wiley and Judy Pine, her two sisters-in-law, Thyra Scheidt and Mary Anne Douglas, and a number of beloved nieces and nephews.

She will be dearly missed and forever remembered for her uncanny ability to brighten one's day with her infectious and easy laugh.

A graveside service will be held at Maplewood Cemetery on Saturday, Oct. 24, 2020 at 1:00 p.m.

The family asks that masks be required in light of the COVID-19 pandemic and in recognition of Jeanine's preventable and premature passing.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital - one of Jeanine's favorite organizations to give to.

"If by chance you wish to remember me, do it with a kind deed or word to someone who needs you. If you do all I have asked, I will live forever."
