“ So sorry for your loss. I just found out today. He was such a good man and happy person. I enjoyed his visits to our shop. He was one of the only vendors I actually looked forward to seeing. I hope you can focus on the good times you spent with him and cherish them always. You are in my prayers.

“ Good afternoon ... very sorry for your loss. I worked with Jeff for several years and thought he was a great guy. We shared many laughs and shared many experiences of our jobs as Kaman account managers. You are all in my thoughts and prayers...

May he rest in peace!
