“ I am so very sorry about the passing of your husband. My prayers and thoughts are with your family in this time of need. Jeff and I went to school together for many of years and he had a very big heart and a smile that no one could forget. Jeff stuck up for me a few times at school. Jeff rest in peace and may god bless your family and your sole. You will be missed very much.

“ We remember so well and with such joy the years we lived next door to Sue, Bob, Julie and Jeff and watched our children play together. Our sympathy to Sue and sister Julie and family, as well as wife Julie and daughter Erin. Our prayers have sought God's face for Jeff across these past two years and we now trust Him and His love to bring solace and comfort. We continue our prayers that peace and wonderful memories will lessen the sorrow at this moment of memorial service.

“ Julie, Erin, & Sue, My heart is sad of Jeff's passing. It has me reflecting on the last conversation we had together. We enjoyed the spiritual walk we were sharing as we walked with the Lord that day. I will treasure that memory the rest of my days until I see him again!

“ Julie, Erin, and family, It grieves me so to hear of Jeff's passing. My heart breaks for all of you. We all really thought a lot of Jeff and all of you. I know this cannot take away your pain but Jeff fought a really long, hard battle and now he is at peace and rest. I believe he is in his heavenly home where there is no more sickness, pain, fear, or grief, only happiness and rejoicing. I hope you find peace in the fact that he has earned his reward and is happy and whole and is waiting to be rejoined one day with all of you that he loves so much.
God Bless You and my prayers will be with you. Rhonda Riggs
