“ I remember so many things about Jenny. I would see her all the time at gas america and we would laugh and talk of old times. Jenny was an amazing person, a friend to so many of us and she was loved more than she probably ever knew. I feel blessed to have met her some 20 years ago and to have been lucky enough to call her my friend. It's hard when we lose our loved ones but, always know that we will all be together again someday. I know Jenny is in the loving arms of her mother today watching over all of her family and friends. My thoughts and prayers are with everyone that is missing Jenny. Lets all take a moment to remember Jenny and SMILE because, she loved to make people smile.R.I.P. OUR LOVING FRIEND JENNIFER

“ May God Be with the family during this terrible loss. I remember Jennifer for all the times she was there for me when I would be upset, she always made me smile. I remember her as well because she was so in love with my nephew Buddy, who we lost to Pancreatic Cancer in 2004....Love you Jennifer, tell Buddy we love and miss him too...

“ Jenny's passing has left a hole that can't be filled. For 18 years she was part of our family. We simply loved her. There's always going to be chair in our world where Jen should be sitting. Deepest Condolences. The idea that she won't whip around the corner in her car or walk up the driveway...Makes me cry.
