“ To the Wallace Family,I am so sorry to learn of Jennifer's passing. I was just sharing with another teacher friend a story about her this afternoon and then learned of her passing this evening. After reading all the other entries in this guestbook, I am so proud of Jennifer and the caring, selfless young lady she became since she left my classroom several years ago. She used to write notes to share with me her thoughts and troubles and hopes. I still have her notes...even the ones she sent me after she graduated. I will keep them safe in my heart. I wish you many happy memories in which to find comfort. You now have an angel watching over you. With sympathy,Amy Clark

“ I didn't know you very well, but you helped me with bringing my Lola home when she had been dog-napped. God must have needed someone with a heart as big as yours. My prayers are with your doggies and your family.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' Revelation 21:4 What a wonderful day that will be!

“ {{{{{{{{{ Debi, Rick, Heather, Boomer, Ashley, Abi, all Jennifer's family, and friends }}}}}}} Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. Thinking of you, wishing you hope in the midst of sorrow and comfort in the midst of pain. May the peace, which comes from the memories of love shared and the love of those around you comfort you now and in the days ahead. Those we love donâ??t go away, They walk beside us every day, Unseen, unheard, but always near, Still loved, still missed, and very dear. Thinking of you all, Teri Jennifer, I am missing our pup, rummage, and off-the-wall conversations. We shared quite a few laughs, some at our furkids' expense and some of our own. More than a few minutes were spent discussing our disgust with animal abuse, neglect, and abandonment, and pet ownership responsibilities and those that "lack" them. sigh You are SO dearly missed!T
