“ Jeremy always made me laugh. He was silly and happy and lived life to the fullest. He would not let epilepsy rule his life. He held down a job and bought a house. He fell in love and Heather you made him very happy and he truly loved you. He loved his little dog Zek. He found faith in a church him and Pop went to. Even when we said we worried about him living alone that is what he wanted. To be his own man and live his life his way. And he did. Along the way he made us laugh. Some one once asked me what I wanted to be remembered for? I said I want people to think of me and laugh. I truly believe that is what Jeremy would want to be remembered for. All the silliness and the laughter. As long as we remember Jeremy and talk about him and keep him in our hearts and memories he will live on. I will miss you Brother of the heart but I will keep you alive in my memories and my heart.

“ Bob and Pat,
I was shocked and Saddened to hear of Jeremy passing. I had the pleasure of working with Jeremy at Pay Less when we were both much younger. We were the youngest two on the night shift we had a lot of good memories. I had lost touch with Jeremy after he left Pay Less. My thoughts and prayers are with you now and in the coming weeks.
