“ Brenda and Harry, Steph and Trevor, Glen, TJ, we all grew up together and I miss all the times we had together. We will all be together some day. You guys are all deeply loved by me. Love you guys always and forever miss ya, Jeremy. Hope to see ya soon. Love ya and miss you a lot. Here's a poem too to Jeremy. We don't know why you were called home, but we do know that each time we see a sun beam....you're there to light our way, guide our day, and show us the way... you always live forever in our hearts with sincere love. Uncle Scott, Aunt Traci, Amanda, Brandi, and families... love all of you

“ I know we didnt really know each other very well, but i did spend some time with u and ur brothers that i knew when u lived down the street from me and when glen and i went out. I will miss seeing u around and Anderson will never be the same without u. Everyone at South Side that knew u knows exactly how i feel about losing u. You will always be in our hearts no matter what. Its not gonna be the same without u. I hope that ur family wont have to go through this again. Much love, Alexis

“ Im so sorry about you loss! I knew Jeremy for 4 years. I miss him alot, what i miss most is how much he made me laugh. he was soooo funny and cute! Everytime he would walk down my street he would just have the biggest grin on his face. And i remember he would always come and ask to mow our lawn. but everytime he did i said no!!lol but now i wish i would of said yes, just to spend a little more time with him. I just want to let you know, that im here for you, especailly Glen, Trevor, and Zach. I love you guys, And just remember all the possitive thing about his life, which was everything, he would want you to! your in my prayers and thoughts. luv you all, Kristin Bell
