“ Dear Pat and Don---I am so sorry we couldn't come to Jerry's visting. I remember him as a very gentle young man at Anderson High School. We were in the 1953 class. His death is the third 1953 classmate this year. I talked to him just before our last reunion, in 2003, hoping he felt like attending. Sadly, he couldn't make it. So sorry you've lost a brother and friend.... You certainly have our sympathy....Love, Wanda and Warren Mitchell

“ To the Family of Jerry Parker, We send our Heartfelt Sympathy. We truly care and share your grief with you. Jerry had such a good sense of humor that we all enjoyed. Both Lyla and Jerry are so well remembered as very special people. We surely will be thinking of all of you. Sincerely, Virgil, Kaye, and John Canfield

“ Sorry to have read about your loss. Did not know Jerry very well, but I did think a lot of him and appreciated him using us for his auction of his car and car memorabilia. It is a sale that we will never forget. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Michael Schott
