“ Dear Sondra, I had the opportunity to get to know Jess about three years ago. He was my trainer for my first Econoway Motor Coach trip to Goshen, VA. I soon discovered that Jess really liked to talk. After that first meeting Jess and I went on several other trips together. He loved to drive and he loved to travel. He loved people and loved to talk about his many friends and his wife. He talked about his love for his wife and his church. We also talked about southern gospel music, his family, Gaither Videos and of course his dog. He loved life and enjoyed doing exciting things. He was one of the few Econoway drivers that would actually ride rides with me at Kings Island while we waited at the park for the groups that we had transported there. There was one ride "The Flight of Fear" that he said that he would never ride with me again or anyone and as far as I know he never rode that ride again. Jess is really going to be missed by everyone at Econoway Motor Coach and I'm going to miss him as a friend. However, I'm comforted in the fact that I know that he knew Jesus Christ as his Savior and Lord of his life. Sondra, I know in the days ahead that you will miss Jess and I know that your knowledge that he is at peace and that he is not suffering will give you comfort. May God bless and comfort you and your family in the days ahead. Sincerely, Hugh Phipps

“ Dear Sondra, Please be aware that I would be there today if I were well. I certainly did not want to bring you any germs so please accept my deepest sympathy and my assurance of lifting you and the family to our wonderful Lord in prayer. I know he will give you the strength to face the future and the peace that only He can provide. My love and prayers are yours. Judy

“ I was so sorry to hear about the death of Jesse Green. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. And all the good things people say do not take that pain away. When I lost my mother to Cancer, it was very devastating to me. What comforted me are the words found in the Bible for the future at Revelation 21:3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24 about our dear loved ones. May these also bring you comfort. Deepest Sympathy, Ms. Floyd
