“ I am so sorry to learn just now of Jesse's passing. We emailed each other March 30-April 1, 2014, but later never heard back from him, even trying again in Nov 2014. We talked about bows & arrows, and hunting, but his priority was the Lord, his wife's health, and their anxiously awaiting their daughter to be born.

Jesse invited me to come hunt with him, if I ever came up to visit my brother again. I wanted to meet him and his family, because I was so impressed with his character, his love for God, and his priorities. Hoping to travel north 7 hrs to visit my brother this fall, I googled Jesse to contact him, and was saddened to read of his tragic accident.

I pray his wife, daughter and family are strengthened and comforted by our Lord's Spirit and at peace because of Jesse's faith in Him.

God Bless,
