“ Feeling sad with the loss of Aunt Jewell. My mind is flooding with childhood memories of that little space we shared so close to Gran and Gramp. Mom and Dad, Aunt Jewell, Uncle Charles, Terry, Jerry, Jim and Me. Terry already nearly grown, Jerry Lee going to Bevel himer's for cokes and Jim and I playing cowboy's and indians. Seems like such an innocent time by today's standards. Guess those really were the good ole days after all. With most of our family having passed, Aunt Jewell seemed to keep us connected some how. While I know she is in a much better place, I feel the loss and my family fading. Wish I could be with you. Love to you all, Sandy and Steve
