“ JD was a Godsend to me after my hubby was killed in 2001. He had me move into his spare bedroom. We became very close. We did alot of fishing and camping, he taught me how to cut split stack and heat with wood. After we went our separate ways we still had a special bond. He was a very caring person who would help anyone anyway he could. He got me hooked on John Deere tractors. I'm sure going to miss him and our visits. God bless you JD. RIH you are loved
