“Mickie, I am so sorry to hear about Jimmie. I just found out on Facebook this afternoon. I have never lost a spouse before so I cannot begin to understand what you are going through but I know people that have lost their loved one and how hard it must be to cope. I think back to the days at Napa and Walnut Ridge. I recall going into Napa with dad to pick up parts and visiting with you two. Also, I recall going to Walnut Ridge Campground and seeing you guys there. Jimmie was always a happy go lucky kind of guy. My condolences to you and your family.

“Mickie, I am saddened to hear of Jim's passing, but I know he is enjoying the treasures of the Lord in His presence. Jim was a great friend to so many and I know he would do anything to help a person. I know it will be hard in the next few months, especially after living so long with the love of your life, but God always gives us the strength to get through the difficult times, walking each step with us, crying with us, and giving us the encouragement we so badly need. My prayers are with you and your family as you go through your time of grief. May God's arms wrap around you, providing His wonderful peace. Love, Cathy Wilkinson

“ Our condolences to the family. My husband and I are from Albany Ky. the home town of Jimmy. I went to high school with Lewis and my husband knew Jimmy, seeing the pictures of his life and family bring back many sweet memories, he and Lewis look so much alike and reflect all our lives years ago. Lewis and Nell, our love to you ❤️ Even though we didn't personally know the remaining family our thought are with you in your time of loss ❤️

“ Jim was one of the “go to” men anyone could always count on. Whether it was in the tool room at plant 20, Southern Heights, the campground, or wherever the Lord took him and Mickie, anyone could always know from his smile and nod that he was ready and willing to help and give anyway he could. Thank you, Jim, for your willingness to reflect the Love and Service of our Lord. To all of Jim's family and friends I share sorrow for your earthly loss and I celebrate his heavenly homecoming.
