“ We can still remember the first time we met Joni at our house - she was so sweet and kind to Don, and we knew our Mother would have loved her as much as we did. -She was very much like our Mother in the way she put others first and cared about Don's feelings. We still have the note that she sent to us after that first visit. We have also come to love Don's extended family that he gained through loving Joni - we feel that they are part of our family, too. We will miss her Joni's sweet disposition. Love, Jeannie & Jeff Don's youngest sister and her husband
