“ Joan was a very special lady. I remember when she worked at Ranch Super Market with her daughter Sandra. They were both very special people. I enjoyed many hours with both of them. They had a common goodness and caring for others that is not common today. I am sure they are both enjoying heaven and discussing the latest. Loving, caring, and forgiving were tributes displayed by both.

God Bless all her Family.

“ I have known Joan for 47 years. She gave me my first job at Ranch Supermarket. She was a wonderful lady. I kept in touch with her for many years but lost contact and did not know how to reach her. I went to her house and took diet cokes for us and we would talk for hours. She was a special friend. I am so sorry for her family for losing this very special family member.

“ Joan Russell was my grandma. She was welcomed into the pearly gates of Heaven on February 6. There is so much I could share about my mammaw.

She was always laughing, mostly because she couldn't hear you. She loved a good diet coke with extra extra ice. She was an amazing chef and she even taught me how to cook my first meal (a grilled cheese). She cared about everyone more than she cared about herself. I loved watching game shows and crime shows with her. She never said no to any food that could come her way and she knew how to keep you from going hungry.

When I was a kid she never said no to playing barbies with me and she was always willing to let me get a new outfit for my dolls. She was a generous soul and she had an enormous heart. It was such an honor to know her and love her.

Joan Russell was more than just my mammaw though, she was my friend. I love you so much, mammaw.

I'll see you soon.
