“ Sherry & Family - It's hard to find the words to express what your dad meant to me. Words seem so small to express something so large. I love your dad dearly. He had the ability to always bring smiles to faces even as he got sick. He could still makes us laugh. He had a heart of gold and always had words of wisdom to share. One of my fondest memories was sitting at your kitchen table as he read Bible scripture to me talking about life. I will truly miss him & his sweet smile & the twinkle in his eye. You are all in my prayers right now & I am here for you. I love you all bunches. Love, Amy Jo

“ The good died young. John, Sr. was a true hero. With a heart of gold he'd be there for anyone at anytime. The man knew love beyond anything else. It will take alot of hard work to keep the world spinning with the amount of caring we just lost. I hope together we can live up to the task he has left us. My heart goes out to the entire Bair family. My friends.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family of John. My family Mr. and Mrs. Murdock had the pleasure to be associated with John for a number of years and found him to be a wonderful, caring person whom we had much respect for. He always had time to talk and did everything he could to help you out. He was invaluable to our family and he will be sorely missed. I hope that his family can find comfort in knowing how much he meant to so many people and how well respected he was. Thanks John. My family and I will miss you.
