“ Sending condolences to Susie, Maxine and Myra...in memory of our brother John. John was faithful in coming to our meetings even when his health failed him. He wanted to be in the meeting, but we understood then that he was failing in his health, and memory. But, we appreciated his efforts and his fellowship. We remember John a few years back when he had health and strength. Thank you Maxine for your care for him. Our Love and sympathy, Ray and Lydia
