“ I will really miss John's big smile coming through the door with our deliveries at the Ebbertt Education Center on 38th Street. Although he didn't waste time with his work, he always took a moment to have a laugh, or to listen to or share a quick grandkids or even a dog,lol story. Although I don't know the rest of your family, I want you to know that John thought of and spoke of all of you with much love often. We will really miss him.

“ John will be very much missed here at our work. He was always such a happy and nice person to see. He loved Snicker doodles and remember the boss buying him some every time we had a pick up for him to come and get at our store. Petticoat Junction
