“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family at this difficult time. I wish I could be there to give my respects in person. John was a good man who served the Lord and worked hard to raise a good family, which is evident by knowing many of you. God bless you during this difficult time and know that you will remain in my prayers. Sincerely, David A. Dayton

“ Losing a parent is one of the hardest things to go through. I just lost my Mother May 5th. It is comforting to know that they are with the Lord and there is "No more Pain" I'm sure as children, it has to be comforting to know that your parents are together again. Praying for your entire family. Kathie and Joe Swan
