“ From the first Race Day I ever went to John made me feel so welcome. He made everyone laugh. He was so kind and caring. I will miss him greatly.
It's easy to see why so many people loved him. I am happy he is reunited with his Ann. I am sure Heaven has a new mischievous Angel. I'm sure he's still playing jokes on other Angels as I type this.
Love and will miss you John.

Uncle John was a great man. I have nothing but respect for him and his memory will live on forever. He had a positive influence on me and was always there in my time of need. Some of the sayings he had i still repeat daily, and the stories he told will live on forever. He had a positive influence on me, and my life is richer for having known him. He lived a long full life and will be missed by many. Rest in peace Mr John.

My Brother John was almost 20 years older than me and back in the early sixties I was 14 or 15 lived down in MS but was in Anderson at Jonh's station and this lady walked up and said she had a flat on her vehicle down the street so I pulled a floor jack down there and changed the tire for her/ when I got back John asked how much I charged her and I replied "50 cents" he laughed so hard and said it should have been lots more / I replied I thought it was pretty much compared to chopping cotton in MS for "3.50" day/ he never let me forget that/ John will be trully missed what a reunion he is having / Paul and Wanda Hester
