“ I love you dad and will miss your compassion, caring advice specially for your extra sensitive daughter. You definitely treated me different than your boys.

I am sadden beyond words that you left us. I never knew that the picture we took at my church 2 Christmas' ago would be your obituary picture. I always said it was your best picture and it was because you were so happy and in love with Annie.

I also didn't know our last goodbye would be so unusually casual. I can't help but wonder if you knew it would be our last and it was too painful to give me that extra special hug that I'd been receiving lately.

I will miss being called Teeps, still no idea why you called me that but you told me it just stuck. Well once you give someone a name it stays with them. Tori, Tori, Tori is especially going to miss her Papa. She has grown so fond of you and you were awesome and devoting so much time to her. Brian has been more than a son-in-law to you in the last 27 years. He appreciated that you treated him with so much respect and you laughed so hard together about our families.

Every Monday we'd talk about Tori, Tori, Tori and so much more. I missed our call this week and am trying to think of another thing to do at 2:30-4:30.
