“ I am flooded with so many wonderful memories and at the same time heavy with disappointment that John you will miss so many more memories we all could have made in this life. We were so very close until the last few years but I thought about you often then John and will miss you terribly. To my family there are not enough words to express the depth of sympathy I feel for our loss. As always all of you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My heart is deeply saddened by your loss. Many years ago I became very good friends with your son David. Your family opened there arms and heart to me making me a part of your life. Words cannot describe the love and respect I have for all of you. John was no exception. He was good and kind, willing to do anything for anyone at anytime. Amy and Richard please know that my heart and prayers go out to you and your family always. If there is anything that I can do please let me know. Michael McCord And Family

“ Dearest John, I remember you a kind loving family man - my big cousin. I always enjoyed playing games with you at the big dining room table on cold winter days of family holiday celebrations. I loved coming to your house. I will miss your loving eyes and your gentle spirit. I will hold you in my heart always. I look forward to meeting you again in our eternal home. Your Cuz, Kristen

“ Living in Michigan since I was 6yrs old didn't give me much of a chance to be very close to my cousins, but every time I arrived in Indiana for a visit some of my fondest memories were at Aunt Amy's and Uncle Dick's because of John and Becky being the closest in age to myself and my sister. When I got a divorce he wanted to know if I would like to move back to Indiana to be closer to the family even though we only saw eachother 1 time a year by then. He was generous and kind and so thoughtful for being concerned about me and my kids. My son Max 10yrs old remembers him because he would play nintendo/playstation with him and John would sit and show him how... if he didn't know. My heart goes out to my family, I will miss him terribly. John you will always be in my prayers, Love, Nikki
